A new Harley-Davidson dealership is coming to St. Augustine.

Adamec Cycle Sales Co. Inc. has announced it will build a 35,000-square-foot facility there by the third quarter of 2019.

The building will be located on a 4.5-acre parcel on Outlet Mall Boulevard, across the street from Fields Cadillac. Adamec St. Augustine LLC purchased the parcel in 2017 for $1,643,600, according to property records.

Adamec Harley-Davidson said it did not have an estimate for the cost of construction.

The company was founded in 1931. It currently has three locations, all of which are in the Jacksonville area.
