

St. Augustine racks up another accolade

By The Record
June 15, 2019

Adding to its many other distinctions, St. Augustine has been ranked No. 2 of the Top 10 Historic Downtowns That Will Take You Back In Time by the AARP Travel Center powered by Expedia. The authors of the study noted: “Established in 1565 by Spanish explorers, the city of St. Augustine is the oldest continuously inhabited European-founded settlement in the continental United States. Of course, they would have an unbelievable historic downtown! ...Take a classic horse-drawn carriage tour . . . and then use your own two feet to walk around the Colonial Quarter. There are plenty of fine restaurants and antique shops that will keep you plenty busy.”