ST. JOHNS COUNTY PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES OPENING OF NOCATEE LANDING

ST. JOHNS COUNTY, Florida (August 21, 2019) – St. Johns County Parks and Recreation Department has announced that Nocatee Landing and Nocatee Landing Paddle Launch are now open to the public. Nocatee Landing features an open-air pavilion with breathtaking views of the river, bike racks, ample parking, and solar-powered public restrooms as well as a non-motorized water vehicle launch for canoes, kayaks, and stand-up paddle boards with access to the Intracoastal Waterway.

Residents and visitors are invited to utilize the brand-new St. Johns County greenspace, which is located at 2015 Nocatee Landing Trail at the base of the southern trailhead of Nocatee's Preserve, adjacent to the Tolomato River, in Ponte Vedra, Florida.

"St. Johns County Parks and Recreation is excited to open the new Nocatee Landing access in Nocatee Preserve," said Doug Bataille, Director of St. Johns County Parks and Recreation Department. "This includes 1,630 acres of beautiful protected land along the Tolomato River, which provides access to an unparalleled section of the river and will increase access for outdoor enthusiasts from all over the county."

For additional information regarding Nocatee Landing, please contact Doug Bataille, St. Johns County Parks and Recreation Director, at 904-209-0324.
