Volunteer Opportunities with St. Johns County Boards and Committees

St. Johns County, FL – The St. Johns County Board of County Commissioners provides residents who have an interest in serving their community and participating in local government with a variety of board and committee opportunities. The volunteer positions consider and make recommendations regarding a myriad of topics including planning and zoning issues, development projects, libraries, parks and recreation facilities and programs, and arts, culture, and tourism matters. The following boards and committees are currently accepting applications:

- Affordable Housing Advisory Committee (application deadline: December 28)
- Recreation Advisory Board (application deadline: December 28)
- Architectural Review Committee (application deadline: January 4)
- Cultural Resource Review Board (application deadline: January 4)
- Mid-Anastasia Design Review Board (application deadline: January 4)
- North Coastal Design Review Board (application deadline: January 4)
- South Anastasia Design Review Board (application deadline: January 25)
- Fire Code Board of Appeals (application deadline: Open until filled)

Please visit the Appointed Boards and Committees webpage at www.sjcfl.us/Boards to view the requirements and duties of each board and committee or download an application. For more information, please contact the Board of County Commissioners office at 904.209.0300 or mlundquist@sjcfl.us.
