St. Johns County Emergency Preparedness and Business Continuity Workshops

St. Johns County, FL – St. Johns County Economic Development and Emergency Management, in partnership with the St. Johns County Chamber of Commerce, Northeast Florida Regional Council, and International Economic Development Council, is hosting two free business continuity workshops to assist business owners and representatives in preparation for operational sustainability before, during, and after an emergency.

The workshops are scheduled for 9 to 11 a.m. and 3 to 5 p.m. on Monday, August 20 at the St. Johns County Emergency Operations Center, 100 EOC Drive. Participants will have an opportunity to review vital emergency preparedness information with staff from these organizations to better understand the tools and resources available to aid in the planning process. To register, please email bethany.taylor@sjcchamber.com or call 904.829.5681. More information on business continuity can also be found at www.floridadisaster.biz. St. Johns County appreciates the U.S. Economic Development Administration for funding this important initiative to educate the local business community.
