St. Johns County Remains Healthiest County in Florida for Sixth Consecutive Year

For the sixth year in a row, St. Johns County has been named the healthiest county in Florida by the University of Wisconsin and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. The County also ranks first in the State in quality of life and social and economic factors. The Foundation also ranked St. Johns County high in clinical care, length of life, and health behaviors in the eighth annual County Health Rankings and Roadmaps Report, released in March 2017.
