St. Johns County Urges Residents and Businesses to Conserve Water

St. Johns County, FL – Water demands have dramatically increased throughout St. Johns County due to a recent lack of rainfall and historically high temperatures. St. Johns County Utilities is urging customers to help conserve water by observing mandatory irrigation schedules and reducing water usage whenever possible. Please refer to the irrigation schedule below for your property:

- Homes with odd numbered or no addresses may irrigate on Wednesdays and Saturdays.
- Homes with even numbered addresses may irrigate on Thursdays and Sundays.
- Nonresidential properties may irrigate on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Please do not irrigate between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. For more information on water conservation or irrigation regulations, please visit www.sjcfll.us/utilities/ or call 904.209.2700.
