Volunteer Opportunities with St. Johns County Boards and Committees

St. Johns County, FL – The St. Johns County Board of County Commissioners provides residents who have an interest in participating in their local government with a variety of board and commission opportunities. The volunteer positions consider and make recommendations regarding a myriad of topics including planning and zoning issues, development projects, libraries, parks and recreation facilities and programs, and arts, culture, and tourism matters. The following boards and committees are currently accepting applications:

- Cultural Resource Review Board (application deadline: April 4)
- South Anastasia Design Review Board (application deadline: April 14)
- Mid-Anastasia Design Review Board (application deadline: April 14)
- Architectural Review Committee (application deadline: April 14)
- Adjustment and Appeals Board (application deadline: April 24)
- West Augustine Nuisance Abatement Board (application deadline: open until filled)
- Fire Code Board of Appeals (application deadline: open until filled)

Please visit the Boards and Commission Webpage at www.sjcfl.us/Boards to view the requirements and duties of each board and committee, download an application, or contact the Board of County Commissioners office at 904.209.0300 or mlundquist@sjcfl.us for more information.
