

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

St. Johns County Presents Hall of Fame Plaque of the Late Eddie Lee Vickers to Wife Barbara Vickers

ST. JOHNS COUNTY, Florida, July 21, 2023 – Today, St. Johns County Parks and Recreation (SJCPAR) Director Ryan Kane, Assistant Director Jamie Baccari, Administrative Assistant Lauren Trice, City of St. Augustine Commissioner Cynthia Garris, and artist Lenny Foster presented the SJCPAR Hall of Fame plaque of the late Eddie Lee Vickers to his wife Barbara Vickers.

St. Johns County Parks and Recreation celebrated the career of the late Eddie Lee Vickers by posthumously inducting him into the St. Johns County Parks and Recreation (SJCPAR) Hall of Fame at the June 20, 2023, Board of County Commissioners meeting. Vickers was a World War II veteran, a civil rights activist in St. Augustine, and a youth recreation leader in St. Johns County that spanned five decades of service to the community. Vickers passed away in 1998.

Eddie Lee Vickers was born on June 10, 1918. After serving in the U.S. Army during World War II and earning several honors, he returned to the United States. He married his fiancé Barbara, who worked as a ship welder in New York City, and they moved back to their hometown of St. Augustine. He began working for the City of St. Augustine, supervising activities at Little Links Park and Youth Center in Lincolntonville. Eddie and Barbara were actively involved in the Civil Rights Movement in St. Augustine in the 1960s, protesting in marches, rallies, and sit-ins.

In 1958, Eddie Lee Vickers began working for SJCPAR as a Recreation Leader, coached baseball, and oversaw activities at Little Links Park throughout his career. He also organized the Vickers Red Raiders youth football team in the 1960s. He retired in 1987, then returned to work for SJCPAR in 1990. In 1997, the St. Augustine City Commission voted to rename Little Links Park to Eddie Vickers Park in honor of his contributions to the community. He was among the first recipients of the de Aviles Award, an award from the City of St. Augustine that honors individuals who have dedicated their time and talent to serve the St. Augustine and St. Johns County community. He becomes only the second inductee in the SJCPAR Hall of Fame, as J. Edward "Red" Cox was inducted last year for his contributions to the St. Johns County community.

"Coach Vickers taught fair play and sportsmanship, which has left a positive impact on the community that is still felt and remembered today," St. Johns County Parks and Recreation Director Ryan Kane said.

City of St. Augustine Commissioner Cynthia Garris attended the Hall of Fame presentation to accept the honor from Kane on behalf of the Vickers family.

###

Media Contact:

Wayne Larson, St. Johns County Director of Public Affairs

Cell Phone: 904-426-2128

Office Phone: 904-209-0542

Email: wlarson@sjcf.us