Dear Chairman Manuel:

The Department has completed its review of St. Johns County's comprehensive plan amendment adopted on August 5, 2008, by Ordinance No. 2008-38 (DCA No. 08PEFE-1). The Department has determined that the amendment meets the requirements of Chapter 163, Part II, Florida Statutes (F.S.), for compliance, as defined in Section 163.3184(1)(b), F.S. The Department is therefore issuing a Notice of Intent to find the plan amendment In Compliance. The Notice of Intent has been sent to the St. Augustine Record newspaper for publication on September 24, 2008. Please be advised that Section 163.3184(8)(c)2, F.S., requires a local government that has an Internet site to post a copy of the Department's Notice of Intent on the site within five days after receipt of the mailed copy of the agency's Notice of Intent.

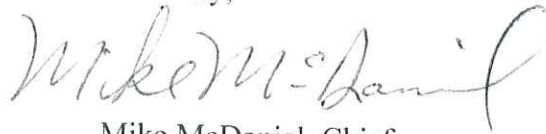

Please note that a copy of the adopted St. Johns County comprehensive plan amendment and the Notice of Intent must be available for public inspection Monday through Friday, except for legal holidays, during normal business hours, at St. Johns County, 4020 Lewis Speedway, St. Augustine, Florida, 32084.

The Department's Notice of Intent to find a plan in compliance shall be deemed to be final order if no timely petition challenging the amendment is filed. Any affected person may file a petition with the agency within 21 days after the publication of the Notice of Intent pursuant to Section 163.3184(9), F.S. No development orders, or permits for development, dependent on the amendment, may be issued or construction commence before the plan amendment takes effect.

If this in compliance determination is challenged by an affected person, you will have the option of mediation pursuant to Subsection 163.3189(3)(a), F.S. If you choose to attempt to resolve this matter through mediation, you must file the request for mediation with the administrative law judge assigned by the Division of Administrative Hearing. The choice of mediation will not affect the right of any party to an administrative hearing.

Sincerely,
