- Public Comments
  - Sallie O'Hara: Recommended the Board advance the National Register nomination of the Vilano Beach Center as a Vilano Historic District. Requested this be an agenda item for the next meeting. She urged the CRRB not to allow for the County Landmark at 165 Vilano Road to approach demolition by neglect, inviting the Board to draft legislation and use Jacksonville's new ordinance as a model. She noted the stronger penalties for demolition of historic properties as per Senate Bill 582 that just passed. She requested that St. Johns County resubmit during the next cycle applications for the two Small Matching Grants that were not funded during this cycle.
  - Trey Asner: Recommended the historic St. Johns County Jail be given landmark status as it is an integral element in the story of the civil rights movement and has direct connection to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Advised he has already submitted the recommendation application to the County.
  - Ed Slavin: Supports the recommendation of the historic St. Johns County Jail be given landmark status. David Nolan: Supports the recommendation of the historic St. Johns County Jail be given landmark status. Mentioned a list of Black History Sites for the CRRB to consider preserved for future generations and the relationship to the Florida Black History Museum.

- Staff (Ms. Kealey West): Welcomed Commissioner Sarah Arnold and explained that Commissioner Arnold is the liaison member to CRRB on behalf of the Board of County Commissioners and is a non-voting member for the CRRB. Clarified, for the CRRB Board, as to what agenda item is being considered at this meeting. In the Staff Report, the Board's consideration is limited to the Cultural Resource Management Plan that is part of the Demolition Permit. This Board does not make any type of judgement on the Demolition Permit for two reasons.

Explained it is not within the purview of the CRRB Board under the Code. In 2024, the Florida legislature passed a law that pre-empts local governments regarding its view of Demolition Permits for certain structures totally or partially in the coastal construction line. Explained the Demolition Permit review is limited to those undertaking an administrative review for compliance with the Florida Building Code, the Florida Fire Prevention Code and the Life Safety Code. Hence the Demolition Permit is an administrative review, and the Cultural Resource Management Plan is now before the CRRB. Advised Board members to disclose detailed ex parte information on this agenda item that includes site visits, emails, phone calls and any communication with the applicant or interested parties.

- Approval of Minutes: Minor changes were requested to the April 14th meeting minutes, so it was agreed they be held for approval until the August meeting.

AGENDA ITEMS

1. Magic Beach Motel – 50 Vilano Road: Demolition Permit Application and Cultural Resource Management Plan.

Staff: Ms. Wright presented a timeline slide for what has been reviewed the past five months. January 15th, 2025, a Demolition Permit was filed by the applicant. March 13th, 2025, St Johns County requested an Historic American Building Survey (HABS) and a Cultural Resource Management Plan (CRMP). March 13th, 2025, a Cultural Resource Management Plan (CRMP) was received. April 14th, 2025, CRRB meeting requested a structural evaluation and made a motion to “defer the decision regarding the CRMP, seeking additional information from the applicant, to include preservation of the building”. May 12th, 2025, and May 13th, 2025, the County received the HABS and CRMP and 5 reports that addressed structural floodplain, architectural and economic reports, with reviews of the structure from various consultants. These were reviewed by County staff. June 26th, 2025, the County received an email response of review from the State Historic Preservation Officer who did review the CRMP. June 30th, 2025, the CRRB is asked to review and make recommendations to approve the CRMP or approve it with modifications or deny the CRMP with reasoning, in support of what Ms. West has presented.

All Board members disclosed ex parte communication.

Applicant: Joe Van Rooy, (9471 Baymeadows Road, Suite 101, Jacksonville), presented additional studies regarding the physical condition and operation of the Magic Beach Motel. Explained they had engaged two architects, a structural engineer and an engineer specializing in coastal construction line matters along with an economist. All the reports have been filed and submitted to the County.

The reports of architects and engineers conclude that the Florida Building Code, herein referred to as the 50% rule, does apply to the building and describes various construction and mechanical deficiencies. The repair of which would invoke the 50% rule. The art deco style facade of the motel is Styrofoam based synthetic stucco that is deteriorating, cracking and leaking.

The economic report, after reviewing the financials of the motel, concludes that the present value of cash flow from the operation of the motel is a negative $1.7 million. Motel operations lose money yearly. The various reports disclose in evidence a building, that due to its location east of the coastal construction line, with the elevation of the project being about 8 feet lower than current code requirements, and the construction with poor construction methods and quality initially plus its present condition, that renovation is not a reasonable option. To continue operation of the motel is not economically feasible. The Mitigation Plan Alternative 2, by Mr. Paul Weaver, includes a replacement building incorporating architectural elements of the Magic Beach Motel including the plasterwork flamingos, a tribute area used to relocate the sign.

Chair, Dr. Leslee Keys: Expressed thanks to Mr. Koppenhafer for his remarks that recognized that the application is from a group outside St. Johns County and addressed his remark about 50 years not being historic. Explained that the 50-year rule is a standard established by the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 so that properties under consideration are recognized as historic and have verifiable and established historical significance. Quote “50 years is a general estimate of the time needed to develop perspective and evaluate significance. This guards against the listing of properties of passing contemporary interest and ensures the national register is a list of truly historic places”.

As stated in numerous public and support documents since May 2021, Magic Beach Motel is a historic structure and designated as a historic cultural resource. Explained that the building is being maintained and has confirmed with the County Code Enforcement that it meets the County Code.

Chair, Dr. Leslee Keys: Raised concerns that regional, northeast Florida consultants were not used in assessing the building.

Mr. Joe Van Rooy: Explained that three of the five were local consultants.

Various discussions occurred between Board members and the Applicant with regard to the existing building code, that water can be directed away from the building and that repairs can be made to the structure, and the site, rather than replacing the building. The board raised concerns as to why the short form and not the large-scale format drawings and photographs were not provided for mitigation for the HABS report.
